Dear Vickie and Jimmy,

Two or three weeks ago I had a package mailed to you from the seafood market and they just called me and said the package had just been returned to them. They had sent it UPS to the New York FPO address. They are going to re-send it thru the post office but now you won't get it by Christmas. We just tried to call you (sat P.M. your time) but you weren't home. Another thing is we are wondering about the different box numbers. It has been box 2, but the tape and recent pictures had Box 9 on the return address. If the package arrives after you have left for Wash. D.C. I am sure your office will hold it for you won't they?

Mary is excited about seeing you and of course we are happy she and Deane are going to move back here.

When I have my Christmas luncheon on the 15th I will have all the girls tack on the tape to send to you.

Mad is going out to the super market now and I want him to mail this. More later.

Love,

Mom
